

Nadační fond
Magdaleny Kožené

Clarinet Factory

In collaboration with and with the financial support of the Magdalena Kožená Foundation

For students and teachers of arts schools (ZUŠ) as part of the Knights of Talent project by the Magdalena Kožená Foundation

May 8–11, 2025 Ilja Hurník Arts School (ZUŠ), Prague

- Joint rehearsals with students and preparation of concert repertoire
 - Individual lessons and study of classical clarinet repertoire
 - Accompaniment with piano (Eva Nýdlová)
 - Freedom, improvisation, and creativity in music – creative workshops
- Demonstrations of using electronics and sound effects in concert performances
- Joint amplified or acoustic concerts (depending on the venue) with the Clarinet Factory ensemble
- Concert repertoire includes transcriptions of works by old masters and original compositions from the Clarinet Factory repertoire
 - Open workshops are available for passive participation
 - Long-term collaboration with ZUŠ schools across all regions

Opening with Prague and the Central Bohemian Region

May 8–11, 2025: Prague, Ilja Hurník Arts School – rehearsal days, instructor-led courses, and workshops

May 12, 2025: Open-air concert – Opening of the Prague Spring Festival at Kampa

May 14, 2025: Open-air concert, Karlín Square – part of the accompanying program for the benefit concert by Magdalena Kožená and ZUŠ

Suitable for students aged 10+ and their teachers

Applications, including CVs, should be sent to: reditelka@nfkozena.cz, zuzana.minarikova@nfkozena.cz

Deadline for applications: February 14, 2025

Maximum capacity: 30 students